JANE

AND HER TEACHER.

CHAPTER I.

LITTLE JANE'S ARRIVAL AT ELLINGTON.

It was now five months since the poor widow Stammers was laid in the silent grave. Her death was a great shock to many who loved and esteemed her, for to her neighbours it was sudden and unexpected. But it could hardly be called so with respect to herself; for she had long been enabled by the grace of God to die daily, to live not only in expectation of, but preparation for her last great change. Therefore when the solemn hour arrived it was a welcome one; and her sudden departure from this world was but a

"IN THE SCRIPTURE" SERIES

GOD IN THE SCRIPTURES

BY HERBERT LOCKYER

"It is in the Bible alone that we have the perfect unfolding of the nature and attributes of God. His nature is what He really is, while His attributes are the excellencies describing what He has. The One partially seen in His created works, is here revealed in all His glory. This Book of God convinces our minds of the reality of the God of the Book. Glorious things are here declared of Him Who transcends our thoughts and the praises of angels."
